News of the day:

The coronavirus pandemic is over

There is no doubt that the world is now in a better position than it was a few months ago. The number of new cases has decreased significantly, and the death toll has been reduced. This is a positive sign that the world is moving in the right direction. However, it is important to remain vigilant and continue to follow the guidelines set by health authorities. The pandemic has shown us that we are all in this together, and we must work together to overcome this challenge.
